Source of Obligation

Standard 6.3 of the National Code requires the School to offer reasonable support to overseas students to enable them to achieve expected learning outcomes regardless of the overseas student's place of study or mode of study of the course, at no additional cost to the overseas student.

Standard 6.4 requires the School to facilitate access to learning support services consistent with the requirements of the course, mode of study and the learning needs of the overseas student cohorts, including having and implementing documented processes for supporting and maintaining contact with overseas students undertaking online or distance education.

Strathcona's Policy

It is the School's policy to offer various types of academic support to overseas students so that they can achieve expected learning outcomes under the School's curriculum.

Overseas students who require academic assistance, can contact the Overseas Students Coordinator, or one of their teachers for assistance.

If a teacher believes that an overseas student requires academic assistance in relation to a particular area of the School's curriculum, the teacher must pass this information to the Overseas Students Coordinator.

Academic Support Services

The School provides the following academic support services to overseas students to enable them to achieve expected learning outcomes, at no additional cost to the overseas student:

- Study groups run by subject-specific tutors
- Supervision of study sessions by academic staff to aid overseas students with homework or study
- Tutoring program
- Edrolo and online support services
- Subject provision accommodation meetings

These services aim to ensure that overseas students have regular access to academic assistance in a variety of subjects.

Online or Distance Education

The School does not provide online/distance education.

Academic Support for ELICOS Students

The School is not registered on CRICOS to provide an ELICOS course.

Record Keeping

The School maintains evidence of compliance with this Policy by maintaining records of academic support provided to an overseas student in accordance with this Policy. Records will be maintained in accordance with our Overseas Students Records Management and Retention Policy.
